Long Cane Seasonal Camps

Southern Region, USDA Forest Service

Date: 8/31/2005

Highlights

Two seasonal camps offer primitive facilities in the east central and northern portions of the Long Cane Ranger District of the Sumter National Forest

Both camps offer a rustic setting ideal for hunting. The surrounding forest environment sustains abundant wildlife populations, resulting in some of the most desirable hunting areas in the upstate. Deer, turkey, and quail are managed as well as non-game species. Several check stations and supply stores are in the vicinity.

Midway Camp—Directions: From Abbeville, take SC Highway 72 east for 6.1 miles to Beulah Church. Turn right on gravel road (FS Road 506 for 0.6 mile to entrance on left.
